CHANGE OF TRADE MARK.

THE L. & R. FORMERLY TRADE MARK. L. & R.

THE STAR.

Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States,—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufacturers of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great imposition now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut which has been duly patented. Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

FORMERLY THE STAR AMMONIATED

SOLUBLE

——It is a mistake about Rufus, Amis, Esq., having been elected to the Senate from Granville.

——The Tilden and Vance Clubs will meet at Metropolitan Hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

——The Governor has appointed Geo. W. Nichols, of Spartanburg, S. C., a commissioner of deeds for North Carolina.

——Attorney General Hargrove has just had a new carpet put on the floor of his office, for the benefit of his successor, and somebody calls it a Kenan and clever act.

Referee's Court.

A referee court of considerable importance assembled in the Court House in this city yesterday, S. H. Wiley, of Salisbury, and Jno. White, of Warrenton, referees. The suit is brought by the North Carolina Land Company, against M. O. Beatty, of Concord, N. C., and C. S. Bennett, of Pennsylvania, for the commission on the sale of the Ore Hill iron property, of Chatham county. This property was sold by the company named, and it is alleged that the previous owners refused to pay the commission. The purchase money was $150,000, and the commissions for which the suit is brought amount to $7,500. Dr. McCallum, who was agent for the land company at the time of the sale, and who was chiefly instrumental in negotiating it, is equally interested with the company in the suit. Messrs. R. H. Battle, Jr., and W. W. Jones, attornies for the estate of the late Col. Geo. Little, President of the North Carolina Land Company, and Col. T. C. Fuller, appear for the plaintiffs, and Hon. D. G. Fowle and Hon. W. N. H. Smith are counsel for the defense.

The court began yesterday and the day was consumed in taking testimony. This is voluminous, and the trial will probably extend through a week.

A Mythical Riot.

A report was current on the streets last evening that a riot took place yesterday at Franklinton, which resulted in the death of one white man and one negro, and the wounding of about twenty-five of both colors. We ran the story into its hole and found it a myth. The only foundation it had in fact was that a negro was shot three or four days ago at Youngsville, Franklin county.

Gov. Vance.

We understand that Gov. Vance returned home from Gaston Court day before yesterday evening. A telegram received from him yesterday by Mr. Joseph A. Haywood, says that he will probably not reach Raleigh before next Saturday, one week from to-day.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

Third Day.

Devotional exercises for half an hour were led by Rev. C. B. Justice, of Rutherfordton. Prayer was offered by Rev. Messrs. Justice, G. W. Harman and J. M. C. Luke.

At the appointed hour, President Cooke took the chair and the secretary called the roll and read the minutes of yesterday.

After some routine business the special order was announced, and Dr. J. P. Boyce, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, was introduced. He explained the reason for the proposed removal of the institution from Greenville, S. C., to Louisville, Ky. The State of South Carolina could not do much for the endowment. Kentucky will give liberally for this object. Louisville is easily accessible from any part of the South. From Kentucky much help can be obtained to support poor young men. There are also large opportunites for practical labor in Sunday School work and in preaching, both in and out of the city.

The location of Louisville also promises us an influence on the North. Their seminaries then must either conform their system more nearly to the wants of the Baptists, or their students will come to ours. This is the only seminary which requires of its professors a statement of their theological belief. They are not allowed to deviate from sound Baptist teaching.

The organization of this institution is peculiar. It is opened to men of all grades of culture, not simply to those highly educated. Here the speaker gave some details as to the various departments of study.

We must have a seminary in the South, and we need only one. It must be endowed. It is proposed that Kentucky give $300,000, and the other States $200,000. North Carolina has never been behind in other things. Shall she be in this?

Bonds were then taken to a considerable amount.

The committees to nominate the Boards of Education and State Missions reported, making but little change in these boards.

A committee was appointed at the last convention to inquire into the advisability of changing the charter of Wake Forest College, so that there may be some legal connection between the convention and the college. This committee reported that under present circumstances they did not think any such change advisable. The report was adopted and the committee discharged.

The report of the committee to nominate the Sunday School Board, recommending a change of the location from Charlotte to Raleigh, excited considerable discussion, and it was finally tabled.

The special committee to whom was referred the report of the Sunday School Board, reported recommending that the employment of a missionary and agent be discontinued. This excited much discussion.

Col. Heck moved to amend by striking out this recommendation.

Pending a motion to table the report, the convention adjourned.

NIGHT SESSION.

A mass meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions was held. Rev. C. Durham and Rev. A. D. Blackwood, conducted religious services, and Maj. W. A Graham spoke of what God has done in opening up the nation to the gospel.

Rev. Dr. Tupper, Corresponding Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, was introduced and delivered a very powerful address on the duty of sending the gospel to the heathen. A brief report could not do it justice. All our people should have heard it.

Dr. Pritchard earnestly pointed out what christian women can do for the cause of the Lord.

The amount given by North Carolina to Foreign Missions is far below the amount given by other States less able than we.

Committed to Jail.

Wm. Jackson, colored, was brought to this city, yesterday, and committed to jail upon a mittimus sent by Justice W. J. Ward, of New Light Township. He is charged with having torn down the chimney to the house of Sanderlin Hendley, and taken out and carried off the beds and everything else in the house of a portable character. He was offered bail in $500, but was unable to give it.

Meeting of Directors.

The Directors of the Masonic Temple Association held a meeting in this city yesterday. J. B. Neathery, Esq., was elected Secretary, vice A. H. Winston, deceased, and was directed to issue notice to the stockholders requiring them to pay the balance due on each share of stock, and to attend in person or by proxy, a meeting of the stockholders to be held in this city on the third Tuesday in January, 1877.

Meeting of the Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met last evening at the Mayor's office. Present: His Honor the Mayor and Aldermen Armstrong, Anderson, Bradley, Carmer, Cooke, Flemming, Green, Jones, Lumsden, Murray, Pescud, Sanders, Walker, Williams and Upchurch.

The proceedings of the last meeting were read and approved.

The reports of committees were next in order, and the finance committee reported several accounts as approved and three as disapproved The report of the committee as to the accounts approved, was adopted.

Alderman Sanders made a statement in regard to one of the disputed accounts—a bill of $100 for the purchase of a mare from Mr. Berry.

Alderman Anderson moved that the account be allowed, and the motion prevailed.

The disputed bill of Mr. Jno. Cayton of $150 for derrick and equipments was next taken up, and after some discussion the matter was left upon the table.

The third bill was one of Thomas Loader for half price of three police uniforms, $60.

Alderman Upchurch moved that the bill be allowed. Carried.

A report of the finance committee regarding a note due P. F. Pescud & Son, for insurance on the Market House, was presented.

Alderman Flemming moved that the matter be referred to the city attorney. Alderman Jones moved to amend by requesting the opinion of the attorney as to the relation of this account to other old accounts against the city. Carried.

The street committee asked for further time to report, which was granted.

Alderman Armstrong reported from a special committee, asking for a path through the Baptist Grove.

Alderman Anderson was doubtful of the propriety of touching this matter. It is one of vital importance—this cotton question—and he, while as much annoyed as any one by the cotton in the Baptist Grove, was averse to interfering with it.

Alderman Sanders said the present arrangement of the cotton was working smoothly; he objected to the opening of the path.

Alderman Flemming moved that the matter be laid on the table.—Carried.

The committee on the printing of Mr. Battle's address, asked for further time, which was granted.

The committee on city debt asked for further time, which was granted.

Alderman Sanders offered a resolution which makes it incumbent upon every keeper of a billiard or other table upon which balls are used, to pay a tax of $50. It was stated that certain evasions had been resorted to by certain men to free themselves of tax, and this resolution was so worded as to embrace all games and make them taxable, whether the money paid purported to be for refreshments or for any other purpose.

Alderman Anderson stated that the expenditures of the city were great, and should be reduced if possible. There is no money in the treasury and orders are daily pouring in upon the treasurer. The financial standing of the board is unenviable, and a reduction of expenditures is highly important.

Alderman Jones moved for a committee of revision of the different departments of the city, with a request that they examine receipts and disbursements and learn where expenses can be reduced, and report to the board. Carried.

Alderman Carmer offered a motion that the clerk be instructed to receive no orders given by city employees until the time of the next regular meeting, to the end that he (the clerk) may be enabled to get somewhat ahead.

Alderman Sanders opposed the motion. The motion prevailed.

Alderman Sanders offered his resignation as a member of the street committee.

Alderman Flemming moved that the resignation be laid on the table. After considerable debate the motion prevailed.

The election of police was next in order, and Alderman Bradley moved that the entire force as at present constituted, be re-elected for the ensuing six months. Carried.

Geo L. Tonoffski presented an application for license to retail liquor within the city limits. The application was granted, upon condition that he comply with the requirements of law.

The Mayor announced as the committee on revision of the different departments, as provided by Alderman Jones' motion: Aldermen Adams, Cooke, Lumsden, Murray and Jones.

Adjourned.

"Ah! how well do I remember—It was in the bleak November" when I caught the cold that was wearing me surely and swiftly away; when I heard of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup took it, and am as well as ever.

The Representative from Carteret.

The member elect from Carteret, Wm. Vernon Geffroy, Esq, though unostentatious, is one of the most talented gentlemen elected to the Legislature. He is a native of Pasquotank county and is about forty-six years of age. Even in youth he was a fine debater; and to show his ability as a writer it is only necessary to state that articles written by him before he had reached man's estate were admitted to the columns of the Washington Union, Raleigh Standard and Elizabeth City Pioneer, leading Democratic journals of that time. A letter addressed to the venerable Thomas Ritchie, upon the retirement of that gentleman from the national Democratic organ, was among Mr. Geffroy's contributions to the press. After attending the law school at Ballston Spa, Saratoga county, New York, he secured a clerkship in the Interior Department, which position he continued to hold until the breaking out of the war between the States, when he resigned it and took up his residence in Beaufort, he having married an estimable lady of that town. Engaged in the mercantile business, he did not seek political preference, though he has been the leader of the Democratic party in his county; but his political friends refused to permit him to to remain longer in the back-ground. His majority is one hundred more than Tilden or Vance's in Carteret county, many Republicans having supported him.

The Raleigh News. Daily, $5 per annum.

Trying Their Hands.

Those who passed by a certain large dry goods house on Fayetteville street last night, witnessed an exhilarating sight. It was after business had closed, and the store was shut up. Every one of the clerks was in the store, and could be plainly seen through the glass doors, by passers-by. Each was trying to prove his superior capacity over the other, for hugging, the subject being the wire woman on which specimens of goods are displayed. All grades of accomplishment in this line were exhibited some approaching the woman and seizing her as if they were afraid of being slapped, others gripping her around the shoulders and blushing, showing that they did not understand their business, and others still, stealing their arms gently around her, while they looked into her face and smiled most sweetly. One young man who had recently come from the country, began his advances by laying one arm on her shoulder and setting the other upon his hip; but the one to whom the gazing public awarded its diploma, for superior grace, agreeableness and knowledge of what he was about, was the one who rested his arm on the counter behind her, then let it drop accidentally(?) on her waist, then jerked it away quickly and apologized.

"Boys will be boys."

Marriage in Petersburg.

Our popular townsman, Mr. W. R. Burwell, returned to the city last night with his bride. He was married in Petersburg, Wednesday evening, to Miss Jennie McKinney, of that city. The bride is well known here, having been once a resident of this city, and is much loved and admired for her many charming qualities. Her hosts of friends, male and female, will welcome her again to our society. It is needless to say that the couple have the very best wishes of all for a happy and prosperous voyage through life. We congratulate our friend most heartily upon his good fortune.—Charlotte Observer.

The groom is a son of Rev. R. Burwell, principal of Peace Institute, and the bride is well known in this city, where her many noble qualities have won for her many friends. The pair is well mated, and we mingle our congratulations with those of the other friends of both parties, and unite with these in extending to them our sincere wishes that the setting sun of their blended life may reflect the golden tints of this the morning.

Settlements with the State Treasurer.

Sheriff C. C. Sandford, of Davie county, on yesterday settled the tax of his county for the current year with the State Treasurer, paying into the treasury, $3,704 82, divided as follows: public tax, $1,955 93; special taxes, $1,747 41; for the school fund, $1,48.

G. Ottoway, Esq., tax collector of Brunswick county, also settled, yesterday the taxes of his county for the year 1876 as follows: public tax, $2,098.33: special taxes, $1,985.57; school tax, $171.46; total $4 255.36.

Vance's Coming.

The interest in the three doubtful States has paled into insignificance. The question now is, and around it all interest centres: "When is Vance coming?" An excellent mechanic said last night: "I'm going to write to him to come next Tuesday, Gaston Court, or no Gaston Court, for I'll be blowed if the people of Wake county are going to work any more till he does come."

And that's just about what's the matter.

Personal.

The following members-elect of the General Assembly, and perhaps others whom we have overlooked, have arrived in this city since our last issue: Messrs. L. R. Waddell, Senator from Johnston; Col. E. R. Liles, editor of the Pee Dee Herald, and Senator from Anson and Lenoir; John N. Staples, member of the House from Guilford; H. B. Short, Senator from Columbus; Chas. Price, member of the House from Davie; Col. Jas. K. Simpson, member of the House from Polk; J. T. Stewart, Senator, and Jas. A. Bizzell, member of the House from Sampson; W. C. Troy, Senator from Cumberland and Harnett; Geo. M. Rose, member of the House from Cumberland.

The following gentlemen are also here: Col Jno. D. Cameron, of the Hillsboro Recorder, candidate for principal clerk of the House; J. B. Hussey, Esq., editor of the Statesville Landmark, candidate for reading clerk of the House; S. C. Herren, of Haywood, candidate for enrolling clerk; J. H. Hill, of Randolph, candidate for doorkeeper of the House; Col. J. Norton, of McDowell, candidate for assistant doorkeeper of the House; J. S. Morris, of Craven, candidate for doorkeeper of the Senate and W. J. Barrett, of Lenoir, candidate for engrossing clerk of the House.

Hon. John Manning, of Chatham, is registered at the Yarborough House.

Mr. Ed. S. Burwell, of Charlotte, the gallant of the town, is here, visiting his relatives.

Professor S. Simpson, President of Yadkin College, is in the city.

Bill Smith is hanging around the ragged edges of the Yarborough.

Burial of a Colored Man by His White Friends.

A citizen of this place who has just returned from Danville, Va., tells us of a strange sight which he witnessed in that place a few days ago. A hearse passed through the street, followed by a carriage, in which were two or three colored people, and behind this walked 30 or 40 white gentlemen. Our friend asked some one for an explanation of the rather unusual scene, and learned that the deceased was the son of a prominent colored Democrat. The youth had died, and his father's colored neighbors had absented themselves from the premises. The white citizens of the place laid the remains out, purchased a coffin for them, hired the hearse and carriage and followed them to the grave. A colored preacher was present there, but stood off to one side, and would have nothing to do with the burial. A white minister said the service, and the white people committed the remains to the earth.

Northern Republican papers have much to say of intimidation and terrorism in the South, but they never mention a case of this kind.

Comfort From South Carolina.

A gentleman who arrived in this city yesterday afternoon on the train from the west, had a conversation between Charlotte and Greensboro with Senator Randolph, of New York, and Hon. Montgomery Blair, of Maryland, who are returning to their homes from Columbia, S. C. They stated to the gentleman that there is no question of the fact that Tilden and Hampton have both carried South Carolina, and they express equally little doubt that both of these will be inaugurated when their respective times come.

THE STATE ELECTION.

The following counties were heard from officially yesterday:

Tyrrell.

Official—Majority for Tilden 499, for Vance 295, for Yeates 286, for Ratification 276.

Polk.

Official—Majority for Tilden 66, for Vance 45, for Vance (for Congress) 138, for Ratification 38.

Mitchell.

Official—Majority for Hayes 159, for Settle 174, for Rejection 266.

Forsythe.

Official—Majority for Hayes, 67; for Settle 86, for Robbins 4, for Rejection 19.

We have published the official returns from all the counties except 17. These are: Alleghany, Anson, Currituck, Dare, Granville, Haywood, Hertford, Hyde, Iredell, Madison, Johnston Montgomery, Nash, Swain, Transylvania, Wautauga, Yancy. From some cause or other we have not had returns from these counties.

The Claims of W. A. Davis.

Mr. Editor:—Among the gentlemen whose names have been mentioned in connection with the various offices to be filled by the Legislature, I know of none who more justly merits a position than Mr. W. A. Davis, editor of the Oxford Torchlight, candidate for Reading Clerk of the Senate. The untiring energy and zeal which Mr. Davis displayed in the late canvass, through the columns of the Torchlight, as well as elsewhere, should entitle him to the consideration of the entire Senate.

Let him be nominated by acclamation is the voice of the EAST.

A NEW SUPREME COURT in 1878. Then the Democrats will have undivided control of the State.

IT is not true, as reported, that Judge Rodman voted the Democratic ticket. He stuck to the sinking ship to the last, and now lies buried in the deep sea of political perdition.

JUDGE SETTLE has gone to the North. May be to get Rutherford B. to condole with him. "Hug up to me, Peg," said Jonathan to his wife, in a dreadful thunderstorm, "let's die like men."

IT is evidently the deliberate purpose of the Republicans to cheat the Democrats out of their majorities in the three doubtful States. The question is, will the Democratic party of the North submit to such an outrage?

THE Petersburg Index-Appeal says, in noticing the suspension of the Constitution, of this city, "it was, of course, a mere mill for the manufacture of lies and slanders, and its demise is a gain to the cause of decency and truth."

JUDGE SETTLE said at Hillsboro. 'I never expect to be a Judge of the Supreme Court; I will be Governor of North Carolina." How does it stand now? Is there a vacancy on the Supreme Bench, and will Governor Brogden surprise Judge Settle by re-appointing him to his old position?

THE refusal of the Republican leaders in New Orleans to hold a conference with the Democrats, is evidence enough that it is the intention of that party to close the door to honest investigation, shut out the light, and consummate in cold-blood the villainy which they have premeditated. We may expect to hear that the canvassing board issues the certificates of election to the Hayes electors, in spite of the vote of the people for Tilden and Hendricks.

WE are pleased to be able to announce that Mr. H. A. Gudger, of Madison, who was reported to have been defeated for the House by Dr. Rumbough, an independent candidate, has received the certificate of election, and will take his seat. Mr. Gudger was a member of the last Legislature, and won an enviable reputation for ability and patriotism. He will be a decided acquisition to the ranks of those who will be likely to lead in the discussions before the House, and his re-election will be hailed with general satisfaction.

The Raleigh News. Daily, $5 per annum.

THE NEXT STEP.

The Republican leaders are carefully laying their plans for subverting the rights of the people and counting in Hayes. When the returning boards in the three doubtful States shall have issued the certificates of election to the Hayes' electors, the next step will be to prepare at Washington to sustain these acts of usurpation.

How can it be done? A pliable President of the Senate is needed—one who will "crook the pregnant hinges of the knee, that thrift may follow fauning;" one who will obey the dictates of his party, and fearlessly execute their designs against the freedom of our institutions.

Ferry, the present Vice-President "by the providence of God," as Gov. Brogden would say, is not the man. He is not daring nor unscrupulous enough for their purpose. The Republican eye turns upon Jim Blaine the corrupt tool of the worst elements of the Radical party.

A Washington dispatch says that the Republican officials and party managers propose to select Mr. Blaine for the presiding officer of the Senate. The telegram goes on to say that he will be chosen to supercede Mr. Ferry because of "the importance of the position of President of the Senate in the coming count of the electoral vote for President and Vice-President," and "because he is courageous and reliable, and should any emergency of an extraordinary or trying character arise he would stick and not hesitate to take every responsibility in the premises as President of the Senate."

Verily, the plot thickens. If the designs of the Republicans succeed—if they can manage to throw the decision of the question as to who has been elected President into the hands of Ferry or Blaine, there is trouble ahead. But, we incline to the belief now from all the developments of the past few days, that the Republicans are merely drowning men catching at straws, and that the whole difficulty which now seems so formidable, and which calls up before distempered fancies such gloomy visions of the future, will be settled long before the 14th of February, when the electoral votes are to be counted.

The Republicans are playing a high game of bluff. Bullies are always cowards. And when the Chandlers, Chamberlains, Kelloggs, Kilpatricks and Packards, are confronted with the stern front of a party determined not to be chiselled out of their victory, they will cower, and relinquish their despotic and outrageous efforts. We may at least continue to hope for this peaceable ending of the difficulty, and trust that the next step will be for the returning board of South Carolina or Florida, to give the certificates of election to the Tilden electors; which would end the matter.

DAYLIGHT IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Down-trodden South Carolina may yet prove to be the conservator of the Union, by electing Samuel J. Tilden, President of the United States. There is a decided chance that the scheme of the Republicans in that State may be defeated by opposition of a formidable nature, and from a most unexpected quarter.

It will be remembered that the Board of Canvassers met Monday morning in Columbia. But before transacting any business it was served with a notice to appear before the Supreme Court, upon a petition of counsel for the Democratic candidates for writs of privilege and mandamus. The Board at once adjourned and appeared before the Supreme Court, as required. Chief Justice Moses was in the chair, with Associate Justices Willard (a white carpet-bagger) and Wright (a negro carpet-bagger.) Besides the array of eminent Democratic counsel there were present a large number of distinguished visitors—among them Senators Randolph, of New Jersey; Gordon, of Georgia, Hon. Montgomery Blair, Captain J. V. Fox, former Secretary of President Lincoln; A. H. H. Stuart, of Virginia, and others.

The initiatory proceedings began with argument among the lawyers as to the pleadings, in which, we are told, the Democratic lawyers were in the main successful. The Court was—to use the expression of an eminent lawyer of our party—in most excellent temper.

The case was taken up on two processes—first, a prohibition to prohibit the State Board of Canvassers from hearing and deciding any protest or contest, and to confine it strictly to the ministerial duty of summing up the votes as counted by the county managers of elections; second, a mandamus to compel the Board, after such summing up by it, to certify the election of those having the highest number of votes.

It was also contended that the Board, under the Constitution of the State, can only act ministerially, not judicially, to hear protests and determine contests. The Democrats asserted that if the Board is allowed to hear and decide, three of them being candidates for re-election, they will decide every Democratic protest against the protestants, and every Republican protest in their favor, so that they may make the vote of anything they please.

Under the proceedings, the Board of Canvassers were made respondents, and the court passed a rule in each case requiring them to appear and answer by 12:30 o'clock on Thursday. In the mean time with the service of the rule the Board were enjoined, and could do nothing.

Our dispatches of yesterday showed that the Board would quietly await the decision of the Supreme Court. When that decision is rendered, they have no alternative but to obey it. The Judiciary of South Carolina are not yet "exhausted." There is no Tom Settle on the bench there, to quake in his boots at the threats of "a rude soldier." The indications are that the Supreme Court will hold the law as the Democratic lawyers contend. If so, South Carolina will unexpectedly solve the difficulty. Mr. Tilden's election will be no longer disputed or resisted by the conspirators, and the star of peace will again beam out upon us from its temporary obscuration.

The dispatches last night show that the Supreme Court has taken control of the Board of Canvassers. That will save the State.

PERSONAL.

'Who do you think is elected?" is getting to be as exasperating as "what do you think of the Beecher case?" used to be.

Twenty-seven young men cast their first vote at Icard township Burke county on the 7th—25 Democratic and two Republican.

Maj. Jos. A. Engelhard, the Democratic Secretary of State elect, was serenaded in Chapel Hill last Saturday night and made a splendid speech.

Charlotte Observer: The young gentlemen of this city propose to give a ball at an early day in honor of the brides that are to be added to our society.

Winston Sentinel: Judge Kerr who is holding this term of court, has made a very favorable impression on our people by his dignified manners and the celerity with which he takes up his business. To see Judge Kerr on the bench brings back the memory of other and better days.

A Sunday School teacher was giving a lesson in Ruth. She wanted to bring out the kindness of Boaz in commanding the reapers to drop large handfuls of wheat. "Now children," she said "Boaz did another nice thing for Ruth; can you tell me what it was?" "Married her!" said one of the boys.

Miss Mary Anderson, the 18-year-old Californian who aspires to play tragedy parts, is going upon the stage simply because she likes it, and not because she's poor. Her friends describe her as a person of dazzling beauty, whose wardrobe is more beautiful still, and who belongs to what the ancient colored lady called the "fustest famblies."

The editor of the St. Louis Globe incidentally mentions the editor of the Times of that city as "a creditless, conscienceless and characterless dead beat, liar and loafer." But as the editor of the Globe is in the penitentiary for stealing the money of the United States, it is a matter of but small importance to the editor of the Times, what the Radical jail-bird has to say about him.

Mrs. Polk, the widow of the ex-President, says a correspondent of the Philadelphia Times, now lives in Nashville, and takes lively interest in affairs of State. Her husband's tomb is laid in the lawn in front of her house. It is a solid block of gray stone, under a flat entablature of the same stone, raised above by four stone pillars.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Florida fountain of youth is filled with alligators, who are digesting the lost man who started from the back country with the official returns.

The Indianapolis Herald (rep.) gives the following list of the causes that worked against Hayes:—"Belknappery Babcockery, bullpuppery, whiskey frauds, hard times, epidemic idiocy."

Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser:—"It is the first time that any President has dared to defy the decent public sentiment of the country, and take a partisan part in assisting to defraud the majority of the people out of their hard won victory."

Cincinnati Enquirer:—"According to Republican logic the people who voted for Tilden were in rebellion. In sending the army South to steal the States of Florida and Louisiana, the Republicans are simply "putting down the rebellion."

Why not consult Dr. Slade about this thing? A Jerseyman running for the Legislature was serenaded, and while he was making a speech, thanking his midnight constituents for electing him, he received a despatch saying that the other fellow had won.

New York Sun: Only a day or two ago Chamberlain claimed a Republican majority of ten thousand in South Carolina. Now he hopes to elect himself and carry the State for Hayes by "eliminating fraudulent votes." In a few days more he will be repacking the old carpet bag.

New Jersey presents a curious example of how nearly political parties are divided at this time. In the next Legislature the Democrats will have a majority of one on joint ballot, the Assembly being a tie. In this emergency the Democrats are willing to take the Speakership and the committees and give the clerkship and the subordinate offices to the Republicans.

GENERAL NOTES.

A sister of Spurgeon the great London preacher has entered the pulpit.

Twenty-five Chicago drunkards accepted Moody's invitation to be talked to in a room by themselves, and twenty-four of them subsequently announced that they had been converted.

In Wyoming Territory the officers wives and laundresses attached to regiments can vote, not being "sworn into the United States service," but neither officers nor soldiers can do so. Altogether it is estimated that 18,000 women vote.

Danbury Reporter: The very best law that North Carolina has had in the last half century is the prohibition of the selling of whisky on the day of election, and if the law was extended to our court week we would be fairly on the road to a more honorable and prosperous stand among our sister States.

THE SPEAKERSHIPS.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

We furnish to the public for their consideration the following additional communications in regard to the Speakerships of the Senate and House of Representatives, which assemble on Monday next:

Maj. James W. Wilson.

[Burke Blade]

We notice the name of one or two gentlemen are mentioned for Speaker of the next House. Our Representative, Maj. James W. Wilson, of Burke, is a polished gentleman and scholar, and would make a most excellent Speaker or anything else. 'Rah for Wilson!

Hon. Edward Ransom.

[Communicated to Charlotte Observer]

Twelve months ago, not only the interests of the Democratic party, but of the people of our State, were in the hands of one man, and he but a short while before a member of that party which has proven so inimical to the prosperity of the State. Upon an appeal made to his patriotism—to his heart as well as his head in behalf of his State, and his posterity, he stepped forward and gave his influence to do all he could to restore our people to honest government and peace. All remember the conduct of Hon. Edward Ransom, of Tyrrell, in the last Constitutional Convention. All remember, likewise, the infamous conduct of the Radical re-unionists to defame and degrade him for having the manliness to leave them for his country's good. Our party made him their President, virtually from compulsion. He stood true to it and the State, throughout. Now, he is a member-elect to the House of Representatives, which meets next Monday. Our party has a large majority, and can select any man it wishes, without restraint. Would it not be a graceful tribute to the fidelity of Dr. Ransom as displayed when he had our party in his power, to honor him with the Speakership of our House of Representatives when we have absolute power? It would be a neat compliment, alike creditable to our party and to Dr. R., and one which I feel sure Dr. R will highly appreciate, and by his conduct in the chair, prove that he merited.

DAVIDSON.

Hon. John W. Cunningham.

Mr. Editor:—The position of President of the Senate for the short interval between Monday next and the 1st of January, is of course nothing but a compliment, but coming from such a body of gentlemen as the next Senate of North Carolina, it is a very high one. I propose, without the slightest intimation either directly or indirectly from him, to bestow it on Hon. John W. Cunningham, of Person, as a feeble tribute to the high ability, exalted patriotism and self-sacrificing spirit of the man.

He is one of that rather small class whom the office must seek; and in that respect is emphatically an "old fogy." But he is no less qualified to shed a lustre upon the highest position in the State. I need not parade in print his many virtues, public and private, for in the central portion of the State at least, his name is a

HOUSEHOLD WORD.

Montford McGehee, Esq.

Mr. Editor:—Please allow me, among the eminent names suggested for the Speakership of the House to call the attention of that body to Mr. McGehee, the member from Person, as a most suitable person to preside over its deliberations. Mr. McGehee has seen a good deal of public life, is a man of most varied and extensive learning, eminently polished and courteous, and would confer an honor upon the House by being its Speaker. Let us put such men to the front.

CANDIDATES FOR CLERKSHIPS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Col. Jno. D. Cameron.

Mr. Editor: Will you allow one who has known Col. Cameron long and well, to speak a word in his behalf as a candidate for the office of clerk of the House of Representatives. It will be remembered that he filled this office during the last Assembly and entirely to the satisfaction of the State.

As the late editor of the NEWS of this city and as editor of the Hillsboro Recorder he has performed double service for the party and upon that ground deserves to be elected to the office of clerk.

There is another consideration however which deserves special mention, when the subject of of a State Convention was first started, Col. Cameron was its first advocate if not its originator, and although the idea awhile met with but little favor from his brethren of the press and by some was deemed visionary yet he unfalteringly continued to be its chief advocate to the end, and the result glorious to him and the State shows the correctness of his judgment upon the question. In the judgment of the writer the whole is greatly indebted to Col. Cameron for his able and unswerving fidelity to his convictions upon this subject and as one of the people I should rejoice if the General Assembly should merit out to him his reward. JUSTITIA.

Seven Millions of Passengers.

The strain on the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in the six months of Centennial travel was so great that the Auditor's department was unable to keep up with the accounts, and is still several weeks behind.—At the Jersey City depot 22,917 trains were started westward, made up of 127,808 cars, carrying about 7,500,000 passengers. This is exclusive of way passengers, and includes the travel in one direction only.

New York Sun: The suspense regarding the election is working to the serious injury of trade. Trade needs a certain outlook for its prosperity, for then calculations as to the future can be made; but when the nightmare of the possible return of a President by fraud rests on the country, business is deranged, and the wisest merchant is all at sea. Though the excitement that immediately followed election day is pretty well allayed, yet anxiety regarding the result still prevails in all quarters, and doubt of the future disturbs enterprise and preoccupies the public mind.

A Correction.

EDENTON, Nov. 13, 1876.

Mr. Editor :—I have recently learned, that it has been publicly alledged by certain persons, that all the collectors of Internal Revenue in this State are defaulters. So far as I am concerned, no matter whence derived, no matter on what authority made, the charge (to say the least of it) is a great mistake—an unfounded slander; which does me great wrong. I have never been a defaulter, but the Government has been, and still is a defaulter to me, in allowing me only about one-fourth of the cotton commissions to which I was lawfully entitled, and in persistently refusing to allow in the settlement, on a mere technicality, sundry amounts, which I proved I had never been able to collect.

WM. E. BOND,
2d Col Int. Rev. 1st Dis. N. C.

I hereby certify, that Wm. E. Bond has exhibited to me the Hon. Fifth Auditor and Comptroller's Report, in final settlement of his Revenue account, No. 7,078, dated June 22nd, 1872, in which a balance of $47.96 is certified to be due to him, the said collector Wm. E. Bond.

Given under my hand, at Edenton, this 13th day of November, 1876.

North Carolina.

[Richmond Dispatch]

In every community tainted with Radicalism the tools of the Administration hover about and seek to find out the way to stifle public opinion and hand over the State, bound hand and foot, to Radicalism. As before announced, that empty headed partisan, General Kilpatrick, went down to Raleigh and held long conferences with the negroes, scalawags, and carpet-baggers. It is announced that Gov. Vance had started on his tour to the Centennial Exhibition, but being informed of the arrival of Kilpatrick in Raleigh, and the conferences he held with the buzzards and nighthawks, he returned upon his tracks and maintained an observatory position until the fussy and frothy captain withdrew. We see now that, although the idea of proceeding to put the "count" in North Carolina under military supervision has been abandoned, there is some carping and growling in the Radical menagerie about that State.

The New York Times has a telegram denouncing the elections in the North State as fraudulent, and assuming that if they had been honestly conducted the matter would have been properly Settled. Exactly; just so. Such is the never-failing deduction of the Radical partisans. Whenever the people reject Radical nominees they do so by fraud, and whenever such nominees are put in places of trust and profit they are so chosen in a fair and honest manner. Thus things are reversed. The people are considered good and virtuous only when they choose villians and rogues to represent them and take charge of their money; but the moment they prefer respectable and trustworthy men of such purposes they are very bad themselves, and all they do is opposed to fairness and virtue. What a honeyful set of wretches these ravenous partisans are. We think they are after their prey, and all the venom and rage they manifest springs from being thwarted. Like beasts of prey, passion is only the offspring of instinct: thirst for blood with the better race of animals, for provender and plunder with the Redicals. It was a disappointment to VANCE to have to turn back, But he was right. He is a General, and knows that it won't do to leave an enemy in his rear.

Brutish Conduct.

[Charleston News and Courier]

The negro women in the low country of South Carolina seem to be incarnate fiends. A correspondent of the Herald, writing from Charleston on the day of the great procession in honor of Hampton, says: "Along the line the colored Democrats, as well as the white men, women and children were subjected to the most abusive and vilest insults from negro roughs and women, particularly the women. They lined the streets, and made indecent exposures of their persons and cursed the white and black Democrats in the most foul and indecent language. It was all submitted to under instructions from Gen. Hampton. The entire police force was out, but could not put a stop to this assault. In some cases the negro women fairly performed an Indian war dance with clubs and knives, and in one or two instances attempted to pull colored men from the ranks and mob them. No disturbance occurred, owing to the forbearance of the whites, several of whom were actually knocked down in the streets."

Freight Train Wrecked on the C. C. Railroad.

[Charlotte Observer, Nov. 15.]

Yesterday morning about eleven o'clock, as the freight train on the Carolina Central road which is due here about 4 o'clock in the afternon, was crossing the trestle at Hitchcock's creek, about a mile this side of Rockingham, it gave away and seven flats and four box cars were precipitated to the ground, a distance of fifteen or twenty feet. Fortunately the engine passed over safely and there being no one on any of the cars which fell through, no one was hurt. The flats were loaded with crossties and the box cars with merchandise and of coure all of them were mashed to pieces.

Hon. Joseph J. Davis.

[Durham Tobacco Plant.]

We congratulate the white men of the 4th Congressional District upon the election of the gallant Davis over the bloated Revenuer, Ike Young. With such men as Jos. J. Davis in office we rest easy, assured that fraud and corruption in the administration of public affairs will cease. Davis' majority will not fall below 1,500.—Hurrah for Hon. Jos. J. Davis.

The Presidency and the House.

[New York World]

Mr. John Sherman in his communication of October 23d to the Cincinnati Commercial, gives a history of the proceedings, in the Senate at its last session on the subject of the joint rule for counting the electoral votes for President and Vice-President. He omits to state that he and his party friends voted down the wise and reasonable proposition of Mr. Bayard, to submit the whole subject to the consideration of a select joint commission of the two houses, who could calmly and deliberately prepare some acceptable and just plan of securing a fair count of the electoral votes, and provide a tribunal to decide upon the regularity of the electoral votes offered. The effort was made, and again and again renewed by Mr. Bayard, to commit this all important subject to a joint select committee, with a view to its satisfactory adjustment, but the proceedings in the Senate will show that Messrs Edmunds, of Vermont; Conkling, of New York; Morton, of Indiana, and Sherman and other Republicans, refused to assist in the attempt to procure a satisfactory settlement. But Mr. Sherman's letter contains a very dangerous claim of power which never was and never can be conceded by the people of the United States of their Representatives in Congress. He speaks of the "counting of the electoral votes by the Vice-President in the presence of both houses."

The Vice-President has no power to count the votes. His power is expressly given to "open all the certificates," but the count of the votes is not entrusted to him.

Time and again in the history of our legislation the two houses have assumed the power and duty of counting the votes by their respective tellers, consisting of one Senator and two Representatives. The twenty-second joint rule adopted and retained in force and acted under by Mr. Sherman and his party for three Presidential elections, recognised this and gave the whole control of the count of the electoral votes and their reception to the two houses, and invested each house with the separate power of rejecting any vote.

It will not now be admitted, as Mr. Sherman quietly proposes, to deposit this sole judicial power and control over the all-important question of deciding what votes shall be counted, in the hands of a single officer, selected by the Senate.

The President of the Senate does open the certificates, but no vote can be counted or declared without the assent of the House of Representatives and the Senate, both bodies being present.

The decision of the question whether the contingency has arisen for the choice of a President by the House of Representatives, as contemplated and provided for by the Constitution, will be made by the House when their duty makes it necessary.

What Say the Men of Business.

[N. Y. Sun.]

Just before the election there appeared in this city a manifesto signed by a number of millionaires, who said that the election of Mr. Tilden would lead to a decline in the credit of the country, and that business and property would suffer from it; but now what do those same gentlemen say to the proposal to make a President by the fraud of Kellogg's and Chamberlain's Returning Boards and by the bayonets of Grant and Sheridan?

Is it not time time for the business men of the country to speak out in view of the rapid strides that are making toward the consummation of this conspiracy? Do they think that the credit of the country, the value of property, and the state of industry end business will be improved by such proceedings as these? If our merchants and bankers will now issue a manifesto worthy of the occasion, it may do something to check this immense and revolutionary wrong.

One of Governor Vance's Presents.

[Charlotte Observer.]

We have hitherto neglected to mention a present received by Gov. Vance from a citizen in Wadesboro. It was a large green down-east bull frog stuffed and standing erect with a carpet-bag in one hand and an umbrella in the other; this completes his dress. He has the air of an individual who had been exposed and expected something worse. He hugs the umbrella close to his side, and seems disposed to shake the dust of some locality from his feet; in fact, he has already taken one stride which indicates a hurried exit. It is one of the best illustrations of the predicament of a certain class of individuals who have infested this country since the war ever seen, and there was no need of attaching a card to it, containing the word "carpet-bagger;" it was recognized at once.

The Election Bets of Kentucky Women.

[Nelson Record.]

It appears that betting on the result of the election between Tilden and Hayes extended to the gentler sex. Several ladies staked hats, gloves, scarfs, &c., and a couple of our married ladies waxed so warm in enthusiasm as to bet a pint of soft soap against a pint of apple butter. Three young gentlemen, with the aid of a wheelbarrow, and led by a brass band, safely deposited the apple butter at the domicile of the delighted victor, who in return made them a pointed speech on the error of human judgment and the necessity and prospect of reform and economy in household as well as governmental affairs.

A Substantial Congratulation.

[Charlotte Observer.]

Amongst the numerous telegrams and letters of congratulation which Gov. Vance is now daily receiving, was one from the "North Carolina boys" in Baltimore. After telling how much they were all tickled at the idea of his being Governor, this important little postscript was added: "Please send us your measure in full, as we desire to present you with the suit of clothes to be worn on the occasion of your inauguration." The Governor says its very insulting, and he's going to resent it too, and that immediately—by sending his measure.

LOUISIANA.

The Returning Board to Hear Arguments on Both Sides--Almost a Panic in New Orleans--Reply of the Democrats to the Republican Refusal--Republicans Weakening.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—Gov Wells, a member of the returning board, states that in all cases of contested polls from any cause the Democratic State Committee would be notified and the board would hear argument from both sides.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Herald's New Orleans special says gold rates at that place to-day are ten per cent. above New York. The banks are calling in all their call loans, particularly on State and city securities. The poor people are drawing their money out of the banks and putting it in gold. Still there is no sign of anything serious.

The committee appointed by the Democratic visitors to prepare a reply to the Republican letter of refusal have been at work up to a late hour. It consists of Senators Trumbull and Doolittle, Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, Ottendorffer, of New York, and another of Ohio. In substance it will substantially say among other things, that they admit no official power or right to interfere with the internal affairs of the State of Louisiana, but they are here at the request of an organization of a great political party, where they meet the representatives of the opposition, selected by the President himself for the same purpose, and, as he says in his army orders, for the sake of seeing an honest count of the vote actually cast. In reply to the statement that the Vice-President has the authority to count the votes, they take direct issue and assert that Congress itself, consisting of the Senate and the House has been solely invested with such power.

The Tribune's New Orleans dispatch says the latest returns of the election in Louisiana, received in this city, show that the Republican majorities are in the aggregate smaller than they have been supposed to be.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Board Ordered to Canvass the Vote Ministerially--A Posse Attacked by Negroes and Two Whites Killed.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 17.—The Supreme Court decided nothing. They merely ordered the board to canvass the vote ministerially and report to the court.

AUGUSTA, GA., Nov. 17.—A posse of six men was sent out by Trial Justice Mulligan, near Lawtonville, S. C., yesterday, to arrest a party of negroes for beating a colored man. After the arrest was made, the posse was surrounded by an armed body of blacks, and two whites named Wm Shooman and Abe Deloach, were shot. Shooman's body was found this morning with his head chopped open.

WASHINGTON.

Cabinet Meeting--Pardon of McKee.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The cabinet meeting to-day was attended by all the members, and appears to have been an interesting session. There was considerable talk about the condition of affairs growing out of the election and of the complications that have received public attention since that time, though it is not known that any action was taken by the cabinet of a character that might be regarded of very special importance. After the adjournment, the members of the cabinet repaired to the office of the Attorney-General somewhat in advance of Judge Taft, who remained at the Executive Mansion in order to perform the necessary business attending the pardon of Mr. McKee. While it is not yet known what the object of the conference at the Department of Justice meant, it is safe to believe that it is for the purpose of consulting important legal authorities in the library of that department, upon matters that received consideration at the meeting.

Wm. McKee, convicted of whiskey frauds, has been pardoned.

NEGRO LAWLESSNESS.

Assassination of a Sheriff's Posse.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 17.—A special dispatch to the News and Courier, received at 2:30 p. m., says that a colored Democrat was severely beaten by Radical negroes at Lawtonville, in the upper part of Beaufort county. At the trial the justice issued a warrant for the arrest of the offenders by the constable and posse. These, on returning with the prisoners last night, were attacked by a body of armed negroes. Two of the white constables were killed and the prisoners rescued. The sheriff of the county is now on his way to Lawtonville.

Telegrams from Barnville, state that the negroes, 2,000 in number and armed, are at Stafford's Cross Roads, near Lawtonville, swearing vengeance on every white man in the country.

FLORIDA.

Florida Conceded as Democratic on All Hands.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Herald's Tallahassee dispatch says the official returns continue to come in without, however, changing the estimate I sent you two days since, giving the State to Tilden by from 400 to 700 majority. A prominent federal office-holder here reduces the majority of Tilden to 229, but cannot vouch for his figures.

The Supreme Court's Decision--Randolph and Blair.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 17.—The Supreme Court to-day issued an auxiliary order instructing the board of canvassers to proceed strictly to ministerial duty canvass returns and submit the same to the court. The board of canvassers just met decided to admit five gentlemen of each side to witness the canvass. The result will probably be reached to night.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 17.—The Supreme Court having control of the board of canvassers, Senator Randolph, Montgomery Blair, and Hon. G. W. FOX, returned North to-day.

Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—For the South Atlantic and Eastern Gulf States, falling barometer, stationary or higher temperature, and cloudy or rainy weather will prevail, with northeast to southeast winds.

FOREIGN.

Czar of Russia to the Generals of the Army.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Shrewsburg cup was won by a brother to Royal George. Miss Lizzie 2nd and Lady Maldin 3d.

A Reuter dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the Czar in addressing the generals and officers at the close of a review at Tsarskocelo on Wednesday, said:

Gentlemen:—Let us wish the best success to the commanders of our two armies."

The Czar's words were received with enthusiastic cheering.

A Reuter telegram from Constantinople says: "According to reliable information, an extraordinary Cabinet council will be held here to-morrow to definitely decide respecting the question of a conference, the British Cabinet having renewed its energetic demands on that subject.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—A correspondent says the entire Polish contingent of the Russian army has been sent out of the Polish provinces for service in the field. The Russian garrisons remain in Warsaw and other Polish cities. A number of Russian officers, who intended to quit Belgrade, have been ordered to remain. Soldiers on furlough in Ireland have been ordered to join their regiments.

Hamilton & Co., colliery owners have failed; liabilities, $600,000.

The Cabinet Divided as to What is Going to Happen.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Two members of the Cabinet are quoted to the effect that there is no question before them of a political character upon which to base action, and no action was taken or recommendation made. They simply had a free and somewhat excited talk over the situation. Their opinions are much divided as to what is going to happen.
